3) On what basis did you choose the universities? USNEWS/Peers/Professors/Visited all sites?

Mainly rankings and research projects in labs of interest

4)Also if you have any comments regarding what are the characteristics of that particular school for ex. Good research opportunities, good faculty, high imp to GRE, etc

University	Future Related Comments□ (Good research, etc)	Selection related comment(GRE score)
Stanford	Best place to go for a Masters in Mech. The entire curriculum is oriented towards product design and a lot of coursework involves industry partners and projects which have direct application in industry

5) Did you send suck mails? How useful are they? Any fundae regarding those?

Sent one to CMU. But there was no response from the prof until after I got the admit. And by the time he responded about a research position in his lab, I had already accepted Stanford's offer. I don't think its worth it. Contact profs after you get the admit.

6) What were the other options open for you? JOB(where), IIM? Etc

Didn't sit for placements. No other options :P

7) Which app are you choosing? Why?

Stan.

>Best mech curriculum. I had some idea of their focus on product design, but it was only after I got here that I came to know that Stan has trademark courses in Design and Mechatronics. There is a strong course-alumni network in industry.

>Not sure whether I ll go for a PhD so I accepted one of the Masters offers.

>California!

8) What was your BTP/DDP/MTP Topic? Who was your guide? Seminar Guide? Why chose him?
