

If you are interested in the following projects, please write a mail to isaa.spur@gmail.com with the subject as SOM – Project1/2/1&2 and your personal details (Name, Roll No., Dept., Contact Details)

2 Projects by Prof. Kirankumar Momaya (SJMSOM)

Project 1

Project title and brief description of the project

International Competitiveness of Focal Firms from India: Exploring role of health of professionals

Brief work description

Identifying focal firms in the region with higher ethics and values, and evaluating trends in their competitiveness. Assessing role of health (e.g. early stage) of key executives and identifying mechanisms with higher effectiveness. Review of health of professionals to lead climb up the ladder in the ethical organizations.

No. of students the Professor can take: One or Two (if really fit)

Eligibility criteria (year of study, CPI-cutoff, any prerequisites, etc.)

1 or 2 year with CPI > 7.5, High commitment to learning, context demand very high levels of fitness; students with swimathon or equivalent levels, knowledge of Japanese and open source preferred

Duration of the Project and tentative starting date

2 months; starting date: May 14

Mode of selection (interview, SoP or resume-based)

Detailed resume (incl. hobbies and achievements in sports, projects & references) & SoP (discussing reasons for working on the project, unique value you bring, career plan, etc.) and then interview of candidates with potential

Project title and brief description of the project

Project 2 Assessing trends in institutional excellence: Focusing on innovation and industrial competitiveness

Brief work description

Identify factors and criteria of excellence and assess longitudinal trends through benchmarking. Review of alternate sources of data for quality assessments and identify root causes of gaps.

No. of students the Professor can take: One

Eligibility criteria (year of study, CPI-cutoff, any prerequisites, etc.)

1 or 2 year with CPI > 7.5, High commitment to learning, context demand very high levels of fitness; students with swimathon or equivalent levels, knowledge of Japanese and open source preferred

Duration of the Project and tentative starting date

2 months; starting date: May 14

Mode of selection (interview, SoP or resume-based)

Detailed resume (incl. hobbies and achievements in sports, projects & references) & SoP (discussing reasons for working on the project, unique value you bring, career plan, etc.) and then interview of candidates with potential